

zato box

ONE

Quick guide

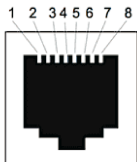

Zatobox One

The Zatobox One is an intuitive energy manager designed for ease of use. By connecting your digital meter, you can efficiently monitor your energy flows.

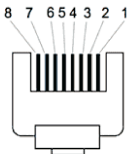

Product configuration

The Zatobox One features an RJ45 connector, which can be connected to the P1 meter using an adapter cable.

Rj-45 Jack (Female)

Rj-45 Plug
(Male)

1. MBus B 1	5. MBus B 2
2. MBus A 1	6. GND
3. GND	7. 5V
4. P1poort, MBus A 2	8. 5V

Specifications

Input voltage	5V DC
P1 port	1 port
Modbus	2 ports
Wifi	2.4GHz
Size	81x31x23mm

Quick setup

Power Connection: Connect the Zatobox One to a power source. This can be done through the P1 port or via a separate charger using the side USB-C port.

Power Up: Once powered, the LED should start flashing.

Device Addition: Use the app to add the device . By default, the Zatobox One includes:

Two sensors for monitoring the main supply and gas supply.

LED State

Wifi Status	LED State
Pairing mode	Continous white
Connected to cloud	Flashing white
Error	Continous red

Connection Status	LED State
No connections active	Continous orange
Connections active	Continous green
Error	Continous red

Troubleshooting

Reset

Press and hold the button for 10 seconds. If successful, the LED will blink in pairing mode.

Install app

App guide

Need help?

Visit the our online documentation with additional information and instructions for all our devices.

web-documentation.zatobox.com

zato box